

IAP20 Rec'D 24 JAN 2006

Remarks

Claims 1 to 37 are now in the application

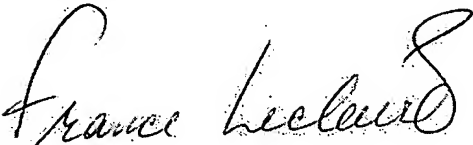

New dependent claim 20 has been added to the set of claims on file in order to better define one of the embodiments of the present invention. As a result of the addition of claim 20, claims 20 to 36 on file have been renumbered 21 to 37 and their dependencies have been modified in accordance. Support for the subject matter of new claim 20 is found in the description on page 5, paragraph 36.

The Applicant thanks the Examiner for the helpful telephonic conversation of October 26, 2005.

Therefore, the Examiner is respectfully requested to consider the previous and present amendments to the international application and to send to the Applicant a favorable International Preliminary Examination Report at her earliest convenience.

Respectfully submitted,

ConjuChem Inc.
